

The ONE-DAY ORCHESTRA
A workshop for RESEO members
Thursday, 21 October 2010
1 pm- 6:30 pm

Opening the RESEO conférence in Berlin on orchestra education, RESEO is offering the unique occasion to form a “one-day orchestra”.

You are all invited to dive headfirst into this adventure: professional musicians, beginners or “one-day musicians”, no matter- what counts is your interest in living this experience!

Baudouin de Jaer will be leading this workshop: Belgian composer and musician, he believes in the potential of art in everybody. He will stimulate your creativity and compose with you a piece of music – in which you will also be the musicians.

« Independantly of the exclusively musical experience, personal experiences can be transformed and explored via sound. Our experiences circulate and change the sound.. »
Baudouin de Jaer

Practical information

Three steps:

1. Register for the workshop via the conference registration form for the Berlin conference.
2. Bring an instrument
One you know how to play, one you have always wanted to play- or even you're your voice.
Should your instrument be too large /difficult to be transported, the Komische Oper can also lend you instruments.
3. Arrive at 1 pm at the latest at the Komische Oper
(Unter den Linden 41, 10117 Berlin)
The workshop must end at 6:30 pm.
